

John Brown Photography: Exhibitions

Photographic works by John Brown have been presented in numerous exhibitions around the world. The settings for the venues have included museums, galleries, artspace, embassies, as well as other cultural centers. Curatorial themes that featured Brown's work have ranged from "emerging artists," "cultural explorations," "historical significances," and "relationships" to the "environment."

Clockwise, from right:
(a) Carroll Square Gallery, Washington, DC;
(b) "Summer", from The Vine Series;
(c) DEPO Gallery, Istanbul, Turkey.

Presenting organizations have included:

- Arlington Art Center, Virginia
- Arts 901 Gallery, Washington, DC
- The Arts Club of Washington, Washington, DC
- The Art Gallery of Montgomery College, Maryland
- Carroll Square Gallery, Washington, DC
- Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, DC
- DEPO Gallery, Istanbul – 5th World Water Forum, Turkey
- District of Columbia Arts Center, Washington, DC
- Ellipse Art Center, Virginia
- Embassy of Peru, Washington, DC
- FotoWeek Central, Washington, DC
- The Galeria de la Pontificia de la Universidad Catolica, Lima, Peru
- Hemphill Fine Arts, Washington, DC
- La Maison Francaise, The Embassy of France, Washington, DC
- Momento Art Gallery, Washington, DC
- Rockville Arts Place, Maryland
- Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC
- U.S. Embassy in Cameroon, Africa
- U.S. Embassy in Djibouti, Africa
- U.S. Embassy in Honduras, Central America
- U.S. Embassy in Yaounde, Africa
- Washington Center for Photography, Washington, DC
- The Washington Project for the Arts, Washington, DC
- Wichita Falls Museum of Art, Texas
- Wolfarth Galleries, Massachusetts & Washington, DC

EXHIBITIONS